Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to explain more fully my views about the responses I believe the US should undertake as a result of Soviet arms control violations.

In every way, we should communicate to the Soviets -- as well as to the Congress, the American people and our Allies -- that the USSR must abide by treaties or they will lose their value and their binding effect.

Respectfully yours,

William J. Casey
